VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Part VII. All of the listed investments except for Item No. 6 are held in the living trust my wife and I have established. (See also Part I, Item No. 2).

Part VII. Except as indicated, there were no gains realized on any of the sales or redemptions reported. To avoid confusion when comparing this final report to my 2014 annual report, I kept the account titles (e.g., Brokerage Acct #1, etc.) the same as in the annual report. This again meant skipping from Brokerage Acct #2 to Brokerage Acct #4, because no assets were held during the year in Brokerage Acct #3.

Part VII, Item No. 1. As I have previously reported, the building in which MS&K Realty held an ownership interest was sold in 2005; and a portion of the sales proceeds was held back as a preferred equity interest, and remained to be paid by the buyer and distributed to the MS&K Realty partners. My current best estimate of my share of the remaining future distributions is reported in Column C. Because my investment has not been entirely liquidated, I have continued to list my partnership position in Part I (see Item No. 1).

Part VII, Item Nos. 8 and 9. These entries represent private commercial real estate investments.

Part VII, Item Nos. 11, 23, 35, 51, 60, 69, 72, 75, and 84. These entries represent cash accounts and money market funds that function essentially as bank accounts for particular brokerage accounts. They sometimes are referred to as "core" accounts. Consistent with my previous reports, I have not reported as separate transactions each deposit of interest or dividends into these "core" accounts, or each time proceeds from the sale or redemption of another investment was deposited into these "core" accounts, or each time funds were withdrawn from a "core" account to purchase another investment.
