VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

With respect to the entry in Part VII, line 51, I hold a limited partnership interest in a fund that invests in publicly traded securities. I have never received any distributions from this limited partnership. To the extent that the fund receives income, the value of my investment increases, and the value at year end is reflected in column C(1). For income tax reporting purposes, the K-1 return I receive reflects income (or losses) derived from the following sources: ordinary dividends, interest income, short-term capital gains (or losses) and long-term capital gains (or losses). In line 51, column B(2), I have selected "Int/Div" as the income type, but it should be noted that income reported for tax purposes also includes income (or losses) from short and long term capital gains (or losses). My entry in line 51, column B(1) reflects my percentage share for income (or losses) reported from all categories of income as explained in this paragraph. I have not yet received a K-1 return for calendar year 2012 so the income and year-end investment value ranges are based on good faith estimates.
