VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Part II--Agreements

I was previously an employee and partner in the Bangs McCullen Law Firm, during which time I became vested in the pension plan maintained by that law firm. My contributions to the Bangs McCullen pension plan are still in that plan. The investment of my own contributions to this fund are entirely self-directed by me. I cannot add to my pension account with Bangs McCullen. The investments I hold in the Bangs McCullen pension plan are disclosed in Part VII.

As a part-time magistrate judge, I am allowed to conduct private mediations. Last year I conducted five such mediations. The parties to those mediations paid me a fee for my time as well state sales taxes on that fee.

In section VII of the report, last year I identified one investment in Brokerage Account #3 as "A.G. Edwards & Sons, Inc." Wells Fargo Advisors took over the former A.G. Edwards, so now that investment is labeled "Wells Fargo Advisors." No new investment was purchased and none was sold from Account #3. This is the same cash account as before, just the name of the brokerage has changed because of the take-over.
