VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Part I

(a) Line 1 refers to a Trust that is unfunded and has no assets (this Trust is also listed in Part VII, Line 102).

PART VII:

(b) In the description of assets the abbreviation ADR refers to American Depositary Receipts (shares of foreign companies trading on U.S. exchanges); ETF refers to Exchange Traded Funds (index funds that trade as common stocks).

(c) Put options sold short and later redeemed (i.e. exercised by owner) are shown as having zero gain because the amount received for the short sale is subtracted from the basis for the underlying security that was purchased and is therefore reflected in the gain/loss incurred when that security is ultimately sold.

(d) Lines 5, 37, 67, 78, and 94 are aggregated Schwab cash equivalent accounts containing one or more of the following: Schwab Municipal Money Fund Value Advantage; Schwab Money Fund Value Advantage, Schwab One Cash Account, Charles Schwab Bank Deposit Accounts, and/or Schwab Cash Reserves. They are aggregated here per the 2011 Filing Instructions. These account balances change frequently as a result of securities purchases or sales, cash transfers, and dividends or interest received. The income received and ending values are shown as required in the non-retirement plan account (Line 5).

(e) Some shares of GNVC were shown in the 2010 FDR as having been purchased in IRA #7. These shares were transferred in 2011 to IRA #2. See also Note (h).

(f) Qualified Retirement Plan #2 was closed in 2011 and remaining cash-equivalent assets transferred to IRA #2.

(g) Line 76: Purchases of this fund are made on a monthly basis. Individual purchases are below the minimum reporting requirement but are aggregated for the entire year with a date shown of 12/31/11.

(h) The accounts identified as IRAs #6 and #7 are Roth conversion IRAs originally opened in 2010 but recharacterized before the end of that year, resulting in zero balances, as stated in last year's FDR. In 2011, assets were again converted from IRA #2 to these accounts, but no securities were bought or sold during the year. These accounts were again recharacterized before the end of the year, and all assets transferred back to IRA #2. There was a zero balance in both accounts on 12/31/11.

(i) Line 100 refers to an aggregated cash equivalent account at Merrill Lynch that pays both dividends (for Merrill Lynch CMA Money Fund) and interest (for Merrill Lynch Bank Deposit Program). This is not a brokerage account, and no individual stocks, bonds or other assets are held.

(j) Line 102 refers to a Trust that is unfunded and has no assets (this Trust is also listed in Part I, Line 1).
