VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

1. Part VII Line 93. This annuity was a retirement investment purchased with monthly deposits over many years, and with the reinvestment of interest payments, so it is impossible to determine the amount of gain.
2. Part VII beginning at Line 18 and following in all investments in mutual funds. All dividends from mutual funds were reinvested in more shares of the same fund, at various times during the year, so no date of purchase is available.
3. Part VII beginning at Line 30 and following in all sales of mutual funds. The amounts in mutual funds are based in part of reinvestment of dividends. For mutual funds held in IRAs and 457 account, purchases of the funds occurred on a monthly basis over many years. Because of these facts, it is impossible to determine the amount of gain from a sale.
