VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Schwab Accounts are managed by Mitchell McLeod Pugh & Williams, Investment Advisors.

In Part III, this report reflects income from the State of Alabama, Unclaimed Funds. The money was originally due to F.A.M.E., Inc., a family owned corporation that was dissolved in the 1980s. An oil and gas representative from Texas that had uncovered some mineral interests similarly owned by this family company (information/details about that were in 2017 FDR report) also located these funds. An agreement was reached for division of all found funds. The total funds held by the State in Unclaimed Funds was $139,726.53, this amount was paid to me as a representative of the dissolved corporation, the funds were divided and my brother received a sum equal to the amount I retained and a smaller portion was paid to the third party. Thus, as noted in Part III, the amount I retained was $ 52,440.00.

One additional oil and gas interest was added to Part VII for 2018, the interest was my [REDACTED] name, after she passed away, it was finally transferred to my [REDACTED] and me in 2018.
