VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Part IIIB: ■ ■ owns Rock Me Baby Records, Inc., an S-corporation. She draws income as an employee, the amount of which I did not list, pursuant to instructions on page 17 ("If spouse is self-employed in business or a profession, only the nature of such business or profession and the words 'self-employed' should be reported . . ."). In reporting year 2014, I listed the company as an investment in Part VII because the company has value and ■ ■ owns the company. After filing my 2014 reporting year report, I received a letter from the Judicial Conference of the United States Committee on Financial Disclosure stating, "In the future, your ■ ■ salary from "Rock Me Baby Records, Inc." should be reported in III.B as non-investment income instead of Parts VII or VIII . . ." Nonetheless, because, aside from any income ■ ■ earns, her company constitutes an asset, I continued to list this company as an asset in Part VII. Further, pursuant to the above quoted instructions from page 17, I did not include her salary in spite of the above quoted language from the letter the Committee on Financial Disclosure sent me. My assumption is that the Committee did not realize that ■ ■ is the sole proprietor of her business, as described on page 17 of the instructions.

Part VII:

- Effective September 26, 2018, Vanguard Precious Metals and Mining Fund changed its name to Global Capital Cycles Fund (VGPMX). I have changed the name from last year's report accordingly (see lines 12 and 57).

- The UTMA(1) brokerage account was formerly a prime money market account (line 66). At some point, and I could not determine when, Vanguard required funds used to purchase securities to come through a brokerage account rather than the prime money market account.
