Re: Financial Disclosure Report for Calendar Year 2003

Dear Judge Lisi:

This letter will respond to your letter of July 27, 2004, concerning my calendar year 2003 disclosure report. Please accept this as an amendment to my report.

The "Smith-Barney Bank Deposit Program" referred to in Part VII, page 2, line 11, is the money market element of my IRA. I believe it appears on earlier reports under a different name. It was my understanding that I had only to report the amount and type of income for the IRA as a whole which I have done in Part VII, page 1, line 1.

With regard to the assets in Part VII, page 2, lines 12-14, the USAA Money Market produced less than $1,000 in interest income. The other assets produced no income. The gross value of the USAA Money Market at the end of the reporting period was less than $15,000; the value method was "T" (Cash/Market).

I appreciate your attention to my report and the (often thankless) work you and your committee do. If this response is not sufficient, please let me know and I will try to fix it.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]
David A. Faber
