VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

As per my Financial Disclosure Report dated 3/31/2010 for 2009 the major portion of my assets have been placed with Fidelity Portfolio Advisory Services and LPL Strategic Asset Management. It is my sincere belief that these organizations qualify as "widely held investment funds". They purchase and sell for my account at will without any input whatsoever from me. Their holdings vary widely in number and types of funds and/or companies. I exercise no oversight regarding the purchase and sale of assets in any of these funds, but simply receive and review the reports at various intervals.

As stated in my March 31, 2010 report, I was advised by the Financial Disclosure Office that it would not be necessary to list each individual mutual fund and/or corporation, but would satisfy reporting dictates by stating the value of the holding in each investment fund and income received during the year from said fund. I further indicate that I have no control over how the assets in the funds are managed and invested. To be more specific, not only do I not exercise control, but I do not have the ability to exercise control over the financial interests held by the above named funds.
