Re: Calendar Year 2005 Filing – Amendment

To the Committee:

I am writing in response to the letter of July 3, 2006 to me from the Hon. Ortrie D. Smith, Chair of the Committee on Financial Disclosure. The following constitutes my responses to the additional information sought, as quoted below from the July 3rd letter:

- I. In Part VII, page 5, lines 10 and 22, you listed “VGSIX” and NAESX,” which were not in your 2004 report. If these assets were owned in 2004 and exempt from disclosure because their income and value were below the reporting thresholds, a parenthetical “(X)” should be inserted alongside the asset names as instructed in the heading to Column A. The notation “(X)” may also be used to account for an asset acquired through an exempt transaction, such as an inheritance or a gift from a family member. In the event that these assets were purchased in 2005, the information required in Column D should be provided. You may want to refer to pages 39 and 51-54 of the filing instructions.

Response: VGSIX is the symbol/acronym for Vanguard REIT Index Fund. NAESX is the symbol/acronym for Vanguard Small Cap Index Fund. Both were reported in my 2004 disclosure report at Part VII, page 3, lines 41 and 42, respectively, using their full fund names.

- II. In Part VII, page 4, line 1, you listed “Nonresidence Condominium.” Please disclose the city or county and state in which the property is located. Although you provided this information in response to an inquiry regarding your 2004 report, each report must be complete in and of itself. You may want to refer to page 37 of the filing instructions.

Judicial Conference of the United
Committee on Financial Disclosure

For the same asset, the income amount code and the income type should be provided in Column B. It should be noted that all income is reportable, whether taxable, tax deferred, or tax exempt. If no income was received, Column B(1) under "Amount" should be left blank and the word "NONE" should appear in Column B(2) under "Type." You may want to refer to pages 45-47 of the filing instructions.

Response: This nonresidence condominium is located in Summit County, Colorado. [REDACTED] No income was derived from that property in 2005.

II. In Part VII, page 1, line 3, page 2, lines 20, 21, 24 and 28, and page 3, lines 41-44 in your 2004 report, you listed various assets, but you did not list these assets in your 2005 report. If these assets are still owned but are now exempt from disclosure due to reduction in income and value, an explanation should be provided in Part VIII. If these assets were sold, information regarding these transactions should be provided in Column D. If neither of these is true, the information regarding income and value of these assets should be provided in Part VII of your 2005 report. You may want to refer to pages 39 and 51-54 of the filing instructions.

Response: The assets listed at Part VII, page 1, line 3 and page 2, lines 20, 21, 24 and 28 of my 2004 disclosure report now belong solely and unqualifiedly to [REDACTED] who have reached the age of majority, to the extent not already disposed of by them. I no longer have even an arguable equitable interest in such assets. I had thought that was made clear in my 2005 disclosure report (see the explanation set forth in my 2005 disclosure report at Part VIII, page 7).

The assets listed at Part VII, page 3, lines 41-44 of my 2004 report are listed respectively at lines 20, 22, 17 and 25 in my 2005 report, but using their mutual fund symbols/acronyms rather than their full fund names.

* * * * *

I trust the above answers the outstanding questions referenced in Judge Smith's July 3, 2006 letter. Please let me know if it does not, and I will endeavor to provide such additional information forthwith.

Yours truly,

[REDACTED]
Phillip S. Figa
