INTER VIVOS TRUSTS

From

1-1- to 12-31-

The [REDACTED] Inter Vivos Trusts were established by [REDACTED] in July of 1965. A of the original trustors have met their demise. For income tax purposes each of the trusts are required to file fiduciary tax returns and collectively the trusts file a partnership tax return. I have previously submitted a copy of the Trust Agreement with my prior filing for your committee's permanent records. Present trustees are [REDACTED]

I have a 19% interest as an income beneficiary and remainderman under the terms and conditions of the trust instrument. I have reported my interest in Section VII on the alternative method with reference to the trust assets.

RIALTO INVESTMENTS

In 1979, I entered into a real estate partnership for the purchase and development of approximately 100 acres of industrial land located in the City of Rialto, County of Riverside, State of California. My interest in the partnership is 25%.

On January 3, 1986, the partnership sold approximately 100 acres of raw land and realized a net profit of approximately $466,000. The partnership received cash and a note secured by a first deed of trust for the unpaid balance of the purchase price. The sale was consummated prior to the time I entered my duty as a Judge.

The remainder of the real property owned by the partnership is developed with an industrial building.

Currently the partnership receives income from rent on the industrial building.

The note secured by the first deed of trust on the subject property was paid off in March of 1992.

Georgia [REDACTED]

In 1993, the partnership entered into a construction loan with Trust Company of Georgia to finance the land acquisition and cost of constructing a 448,000 square foot industrial building. The facility is leased to GATX Corporation for a 10 year period.

The construction loan with Trust Company of Georgia was paid off by obtaining a non-recourse permanent loan from The Principal Mutual Life Insurance Company.

In 1999, the existing non-recourse permanent loan from the Principal Mutual Life Insurance Company was replaced as a result of refinancing the development with a new permanent non-recourse loan from Prudential Insurance Company. proceeds which were placed in a segregated account at Cedars Bank.

TRUST

On or about November 1, 2000, I assumed the duties of a successor co-trustee to the [REDACTED] Trust. [REDACTED] was my former law partner for the years 1966 through June 26, 1972, when I was first appointed a judge for the State of California, County of Los Angeles. [REDACTED] and I had always maintained a close family-type relationship in that he did not have any children of his own lineage and looked upon me as a younger brother and trusted friend. [REDACTED] became incapacitated as a result of a brain tumor, which necessitated me to assume the position of a successor co-trustee pursuant to his expressed written request in the trust documents. [REDACTED] met his demise on January 12, 2001. I am not being compensated for my services, nor do I expect or want to be. I do not have any direct, indirect, beneficial, remainderman, any type of interest, ownership or otherwise in any of the trust assets. I am simply acting as a successor co-trustee to distribute the assets of the trust, after all expenses, liabilities and taxes have been paid, to his current surviving spouse, the University of Southern California School of Law, [REDACTED] of his former deceased [REDACTED] pursuant to the expressed terms and conditions of the trust instrument.

On September 20, 2001, the federal estate tax return and state inheritance tax returns were filed with the respective agencies.
