6. Have you ever held a position or played a role in a political campaign? If so, please identify the particulars of the campaign, including the candidate, dates of the campaign, your title and responsibilities.

I have been a candidate for political and judicial office on four occasions and once for retention as an Appellate Court Judge. In the four campaigns for political office and judicial office, I have been the candidate of the Republican Party, actively campaigned for the position, and was elected on each occasion:

1968 - Candidate for nomination and candidate in general election (Republican Party) for State's Attorney of Winnebago County, Illinois.

1972 - Candidate for nomination and candidate in general election (Republican Party) for State's Attorney of Winnebago County, Illinois [no primary or general election opposition].

1976 - Candidate for nomination and candidate in general election (Republican Party) for Circuit Judge, 17th Judicial Circuit of Illinois.

1980 - Candidate for nomination and candidate in general election (Republican Party) for Appellate Court Judge, Second District, State of Illinois [no primary or general election opposition].

1990 - Retention election candidate for Appellate Court Judge, Second District, State of Illinois.

From 1964 through 1976, I assisted various candidates for office as a volunteer, but was never a campaign manager, a paid campaign employee, or fundraiser in any political campaign. Any role I played in a campaign was incidental to my position as a Republican official.
