VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

II. Agreements

I have participated in this retirement plan since 9/1/76 at Delaware Law School (now Widener University Law School) and at George Mason University Law School. Employer contributions from these institutions ceased when I left employment with them, but my retirement remains vested.

VII. Investments and Trusts

I noticed in the instructions this year that I should break down investments into accounts as they are reported to me by my broker. Thus, the accounts that have not appeared before a labeled with an "X." In previous years, although I listed all assets only under "Morgan Stanley IRA," I listed all assets--so nothing has gone unreported.

Finally, I noticed that I did not have to report individual transactions for less than $1,000; therefore, some assets are listed in Column A because they are worth more than $1,000, but the transactions involving the asset were not more than $1,000.

In response to the letter of October 3, 2016, requesting further information:

1. "Wells Fargo Bank (savings account)" and "Capital One Bank (checking account)," listed in my 2014 Report are not listed in this report, because they have both dropped in value below the $1,000 threshold.
2. Income amounts and kinds are inserted for the lines indicated in the letter. (Note: The Key Tip for Part VII-B instructs that Column B does not have to be filled out for individual assets in aggregate ownership accounts, such as an IRA. This seems to conflict with the instructions in the letter and on pp. 39 and 40 of the formal Instructions.)
3. TIAA-CREF Retirement is broken down into funds as required by the letter.
4. One entry in line 16, Alger Spectra, was deleted because I noticed that I had listed a transaction under $1,000. (Note: Line numbering has changed from the original because of additions and deletions.)
5. The purchase information for Natixis is supplied on line 93 of Part VII. (former line 89)
