8. Line 237-331. Insofar as my [REDACTED] listings are concerned, she is a woman of independent means and the listings contained herein with regard to her are those to which I may have personal knowledge from income tax returns and prior reports to you. I am not privy to any other information concerning her holdings and finances as she deals independently with regard to them and is an independent individual who will not waive her constitutional or statutory rights. My wife's holdings were not derived from or through me and are being reported since they may be known to me due to joint income tax returns and are released only because of the regulations placed upon me. I do not derive any benefit from her securities in any way. She claims her right to confidentiality by virtue of 26 U.S.C. Section 6103, among other protections. She emphatically believes her holdings reported on this form should not be divulged for any public viewing. She feels that her constitutional rights have been and will be violated and that she has not been afforded a hearing with regard to your requirement that her personal and private holdings be reported. She states she has not been afforded due process. Any information you feel is lacking or is in need of explanation should be directed to her as I have disclosed that which I may have learned from past tax information and some of which may be over reported out of an abundance of caution.
