VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

The item in Line 34, Connecticut St. SPL Tax Obligation R Spl, Bond, was redeemed in full in 2017, and should have been omitted from the 2018 and 2019 reports.

In addition, the four items in Lines 16, 27, 39 and 50 all had name changes last year, most of the slight changes. .

In addition, with respect to Section I, Position, upon the death of several elderly relatives, I became the Trustee of philanthropic funds established by my relatives with a local charity. My role with respect to these philanthropic funds is quite limited. As Trustee, my sole responsibility is to make recommendations for distributions to other charities, which recommendations can be followed or ignored by the charitable foundation which administers the funds. This charitable foundation manages millions of dollars of charitable funds (akin to a little version of the United Way), of which my relatives' philanthropic funds are just a small part. I explained this in a letter to CFD, dated July 30, 2004.

In 2018, after extensive email communications with the staff of the CFD, I became a member of the Board of Directors of this charitable foundation. There is a separate and distinct committee that administers the assets held by this fund, which are administered by a professional money manager. I play no role with respect to the investment decisions and assets of this fund.. The role of the Board of Directors is to set the general policy for the charitable foundation and to resolve administrative issues that may arise from time to time regarding individual family funds, like that of my relatives. The staff of the CFD indicated in their emails that I was permitted to serve on the Board of Directors of this charitable foundation if the organization is not solely engaged in fundraising, is not likely to be involved in adversary proceedings in any court, and does not fund other organizations' litigation efforts; all three elements are satisfied. Obviously, if the situation were to change during my tenure as a member of the Board of Directors, I will resign from this position.

Thank you.
