with former law firm, Chester Willcox & Saxbe (CWS), from national litigation between the State of Ohio and cigarette manufacturers. The members of EARL are former partners of CWS who were partners of CWS at the time of the fee award made in 2000. As of January 1, 2012, CWS merged with the law firm of Taft Stettinius & Hollister; however, there is no relationship between EARL and Taft Stettinius & Hollister other than that some of the members of EARL who were partners of CWS in 2000 are now partners or other attorneys with Taft Stettinius & Hollister. Distributions by EARL were fixed and set through a percentage formula agreed upon and established through the agreement and documents created in 2000 and the only function of EARL is to receive the fee award payments, to make the distributions to the members of EARL in accordance with the 2000 agreement, and to make all appropriate and required tax or other filings for EARL. The chief financial officer of Taft Stettinius & Hollister performs the ministerial task of preparing and mailing the EARL distribution checks.
