VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

II. AGREEMENTS (Cont'd).

At least for the foreseeable future, I decided to continue to have certain of the amounts I had accumulated in the HR 10 Plan, which is sponsored by SAB of which I was a partner through September 30, 1992, and which is an independently managed, fully funded, defined contribution plan that allows for self-directed investments, to be managed by the advisor retained by SAB. In July 2000, I rolled over into an IRA at Morgan Stanley the balance of those amounts. In 2007, I rolled over my Morgan Stanley IRA accounts into IRA accounts at UBS Financial Services, Inc. (UBS).

I have a vested interest in the Sutherland, Asbill & Brennan Defined Benefit Plan for Partners and Nonlegal Personnel. The benefit I am entitled to receive under that plan is an annual income on a straight-line basis of $6,782.15 per year, commencing at normal retirement age of 65 and which became effective as of 1/1/09. Annual amount is paid equally over 12 months. Pursuant to the terms of the plan, I was not entitled to a lump-sum payout when I withdrew as a partner from SAB effective October 1, 1992, because, as a relatively new plan, the benefits to the participants of the plan were not fully funded. The plan provides that pension payments will begin automatically after I attain the normal retirement age of 65. The amount of the pension payments are in no way affected by the profitability of SAB or by the performance of the trust fund. If the trustee of the plan was to realize a better or a worse investment rate than assumed in the actuarial calculations for the plan, SAB either would contribute less or more to provide the defined benefit of all participants. The plan may be terminated either because of a change in the law or a decision by the partners of SAB to discontinue this benefit. In the event of plan termination, ERISA provides very specific rules for the allocation of plan assets among participants, with those who have already retired being given fully funded benefits first. If SAB were not able to provide all benefits, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation would pick up the liability for any shortfall up to the benefit levels insured by that agency. It is my understanding that, except in that unlikely event, my benefit under the plan is a fixed amount.

VII. INVESTMENTS AND TRUSTS
