VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Following the FDR filing instructions relating to security issues, I am not listing account numbers for banks, brokerage accounts, and trusts. Instead, I have designated the accounts by numbers, e.g., "Wells Fargo Checking #1". Thus, the description for these assets in this 2013 reporting will be different from the 2012 reporting.

To simplify the organization of the report, and to make yearly updates easier under Part VII, investment accounts with multiple investments will have the investment firm name and designated number listed first, preceded with four (4) asterisks. Next, the underlying investments are listed in the lines thereafter, preceded by a hyphen, as shown below:

*Account Name #1

-Large Cap Fund

-Small Cap Fund

-Mid Cap Fund

Two trusts referred to in this report are as follow:

1. Trust #2: Trust #2 was created by [REDACTED] on December 15, 1976. It became irrevocable on her death in 1990 and divided into three shares. The trustee has discretion to pay the income and principal of my share to me, [REDACTED], and [REDACTED].
2. Trust #1: Trust #1 was formed by [REDACTED] in 1976 and became irrevocable on his death in 1987. On his death the property was divided into equal shares for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and me. The trustee has discretion to pay some or all of the net income or principal of my share to me, [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]. The trust terminates on the death of me and [REDACTED], the remainder going to [REDACTED].
3. The income of both trusts was paid by the trustee in 2012 to [REDACTED], all over 21 years of age. At the request of the Committee on Financial Disclosure, I have summarized the reports I have received.

In April 2000, Fleet Bank acquired the Bank of Boston, and then Bank of America acquired Fleet, and became the trustee of the above trusts. The trusts were also subdivided into distinct trusts for each of the [REDACTED] of the grantors, so that there is now a distinct trust for me and [REDACTED] under the same trust instruments. Report is not made here of sales of odd lots (typically one or two shares) made to make it easier to divide the trusts into thirds.
