VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Part VII. All of the listed investments except for Item No. 6 are held in the living trust [REDACTED] have established. (See also Part I, Item No. 2).

Part VII. Except as indicated, there were no gains realized on any of the sales or redemptions reported. To avoid confusion when comparing this year's report to last year's report, I kept the account titles (e.g., Brokerage Acct #1, etc.) the same as in last year's report. This again meant skipping from Brokerage Acct #2 to Brokerage Acct #4, because no assets were held during the year in Brokerage Acct #3.

Part VII, Item No. 1. As I have previously reported, the building in which MS&K Realty held an ownership interest was sold in 2005; and a portion of the sales proceeds was held back as a preferred equity interest, and remained to be paid by the buyer and distributed to the MS&K Realty partners. The 2014 distribution (which includes some interest) is reported in Column B, and my current best estimate of my share of the remaining future distributions is reported in Column C. Because my investment has not been entirely liquidated, I have continued to list my partnership position in Part I (see Item No. 1).

Part VII, Item Nos. 7 and 8. These entries represent private commercial real estate investments.

Part VII, Item Nos. 10, 26, 38, 52, 66, 80, 83,86, and 99. These entries represent cash accounts and money market funds that function essentially as bank accounts for particular brokerage accounts. They sometimes are referred to as "core" accounts. Consistent with my previous reports, I have not reported as separate transactions each deposit of interest or dividends into these "core" accounts, or each time proceeds from the sale or redemption of another investment was deposited into these "core" accounts, or each time funds were withdrawn from a "core" account to purchase another investment.

Part. VII, Item Nos. 13 and 40. The amounts reported as dividends represent stock dividends.
